

L'Association des Rencontres Internationales Artistiques

CALL FOR APPLICATION

« INTERNATIONAL MEETING OF THEATER SCHOOLS IN CORSICA »

INTRODUCTION

The ASSOCIATION OF INTERNATIONAL ARTISTIC MEETING was created in 1998 by ROBIN RENUCCI. L'ARIA is a non-profit organization open to everyone (professional and amateur actors, technicians, costume designers, teachers, students, foreigners). L'Aria has been developing a theatrical creation project of individual and collective education and training, in the middle of National Natural Park of Corsica, in a magnificent region of France, unique by its natural and cultural diversity and in a wonderful modern work place called "A STAZZONA" which means "the forge".

The INTERNATIONAL MEETING OF THEATER SCHOOLS IN CORSICA allow students from different theater schools and different countries through a 10 DAYS' workshop with different professors, methods, trainings and performances to find out different ways of looking at things and theater languages. This workshop offers meeting, exchanging and confronting with other students and different audiences through immersion.

The workshop is limited to 25 STUDENTS TOTAL ; each school can provide a maximum of 2 STUDENTS.
The pedagogic program is in progress and will be sent later.
